BATTLE HORSE MINISTRIES

September, 2026

Beloved in Christ…

All praise be to God. Let us thank God who has guided us faithfully in the last month. Though we have been through many difficult situations and problems, He has given us the grace to see this month. Let us pray to our Almighty God that all the resolutions we have made in this month, especially to grow in God's word, be fulfilled. Even in this month, He helped us complete and send this magazine, so I thank God for the same. I believe the messages and stories in the magazine will be useful for you as well, to talk about God.

Prayer…

Dear Father, you have guided us without any fails in the past month, we thank you, King. This month let many souls be met through us. We pray that you protect rulers, government officials, doctors, nurses, teachers, police officers, sanitation workers and bless us all. We pray in the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ that our needs will be met, and our worries and sorrows will be removed, and we will always be happy in this new month. We pray that messages and stories of this magazine will be useful to everyone who reads it. Hear our prayers our good Father. Amen.

THE COMPLETE PLAN OF SALVATION

(From Sin to Eternal Salvation)

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 6:23

Every person living in this world seeks answers to certain questions:

- Why was I born?
- Why do I sin?
- What happens after death?
- Will God accept me?

The Bible offers a single answer to all these questions: God's plan of salvation.

This plan spans from man's fall into sin to the salvation that leads to eternal life with God.

Today, we will study this plan of salvation in seven key parts.

I. Sin – Man's Greatest Problem

Sin is not merely a wrong action; it is an act of rebellion against God.

The Bible explains sin in three ways:

1. Transgressing the Law

1 John 3:4 "Sin is lawlessness" (transgression of the law).

Violating the commandments given by God is sin.

2. Failing to do good

James 4:17 " If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them."

Sin is not just about doing evil.

Failing to do the good one ought to do is also sin.

3. Acting without faith

Romans 14:23 "everything that does not come from faith is sin."

Actions performed without trusting in God do not please Him.

4. The Consequence of Sin

Romans 3:23 "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

Romans 6:23 "The wages of sin is death."

Sin separates man from God.

Sin enslaves man.

Sin leads to eternal death.

II. Mercy – God did not inflict immediate punishment

When man sinned, God could have destroyed him instantly.

But God did not do so.

His mercy was at work.

Ephesians 2:4-5 "God, who is rich in mercy..."

Mercy means: God withholding the punishment we deserve. Adam remaining alive was an act of mercy. Nineveh not being destroyed was an act of mercy. On the cross, "Father, forgive them." (Luke 23:34)

Jesus' prayer reveals God's mercy.

III. Grace – God bestowed goodness upon the undeserving

God did not merely remove the punishment. He went further and granted blessings as well. That is grace.

Ephesians 2:8-9 "It is by grace you have been saved through faith."

Grace means: God freely grants salvation to the undeserving. We did not earn it. We did not qualify for it. It is a gift of God's love.

IV. Deliverance – Christ redeemed us from slavery to sin

Man is a slave to sin. John 8:34 "Everyone who sins is a slave to sin."

But Jesus came to set us free. John 8:36 "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed."

Colossians 1:13-14 "For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness... in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins."

Deliverance means: Being set free from the power of sin. Being rescued from Satan's bondage. Being transformed into a child of God.

V. Forgiveness of Sins – Our guilt was removed

After receiving deliverance, God forgives our sins. 1 John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, He will forgive."

Ephesians 1:7 "We have received the forgiveness of sins through His blood." Forgiveness of sins is God erasing the record of our offenses.

God declares, "Your sin is remembered no more."

VI. Salvation – A new relationship with God

Salvation is not merely being freed from sin; it is also being included in God's family. Acts 4:12 "Salvation is found in no one else."

Romans 10:9 "If you believe, you will be saved."

Salvation includes:

- New birth
- Becoming a child of God
- Indwelling of the Holy Spirit
- Assurance of eternal life

VII. Ultimate Salvation – The complete fulfillment of salvation

Salvation begins today, but its fulfillment is yet to come.

Hebrews 5:9 "He became the source of eternal salvation."

1 Peter 1:8-9 "for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls."

One day:

- There will be no death.
- There will be no tears.
- There will be no sin.
- There will be no curse.

We will live with God forever. This is ultimate salvation.

The Complete Plan of Salvation

Sin: Man became separated from God.

Mercy: God did not inflict punishment immediately.

Grace: God sent Jesus Christ into the world.

Deliverance: Jesus redeemed us with His blood on the cross.

Forgiveness: Our sins were forgiven.

Salvation: We were transformed into children of God.

Ultimate Salvation: We have received the hope of living with God in eternal glory.

Conclusion

The Bible teaches us an important truth. Sin separates man from God. Mercy preserves man from destruction. Grace grants man unmerited salvation. Deliverance breaks the bondage of sin. Forgiveness removes guilt. Salvation establishes a new relationship with God. Ultimate Salvation finds its glorious fulfilment in eternal life.

Therefore, each of us must examine ourselves today:

- Am I still living in sin?
- Have I accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior?
- Am I living in His grace? of eternal salvation

JESUS IS WONDERFUL

"As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you." – (Joshua 1:5).

A Christian brother was listening to a daily devotional message when a flood warning was issued for the quiet valley where he lived. Upon hearing this, he knelt down and began to pray. Even as he prayed, water began to flood the entrance of his house. He quickly rushed to the upper floor and continued praying. The water level kept rising. Finally, he stood on the terrace and prayed. Just then, rescuers in a helicopter shouted through a loudspeaker, telling him they were lowering a ladder and asking him to climb up to safety. However, the man refused, saying, "The Lord will save me; I do not need any help."

Shortly after, the house began to collapse. He clung tightly to a nearby tree. Police officers arrived in a boat and urged him to come with them, but he again refused, insisting, "No, the Lord will save me," and continued holding onto the tree. Eventually, the tree fell, and the man drowned in the floodwaters.

Upon reaching heaven, he complained to the Lord, "I am happy to be here, but You did not answer the prayer I offered." God replied, "I sent you a helicopter and a boat; why didn't you board them and escape?"

Nowhere in the Bible is it written that God reveals Himself only through extraordinary means. Many of us believe that God’s hand is present only where miracles are performed. We are constantly expecting signs and wonders. Many Christians attend miracle campaigns hoping that the minister will call out their names. Yet, in these times, how many truly believe—from the depths of their hearts—in God’s promise: "I will never leave you nor forsake you"? How many who call themselves Christians still look to daily horoscopes or flock to ministers, eager to hear what is said about them, their families, and their futures? When ten people go to a minister for prayer, God does not necessarily reveal something to all ten; He might offer spiritual counsel or comfort to just one soul in desperate need. However, because all ten pressure the minister to reveal what the Lord is saying, the minister is sometimes compelled to speak things that God has not actually spoken. Since it is the believers themselves who create this pressure, the minister cannot be blamed.

Every believer’s mindset needs to change. If the Lord has said, "I am always with you," why should I look to others?

Why should we seek after miracles?

If every heart held the firm conviction that God is with us—whether miracles occur or not—we certainly would not go chasing after signs and wonders. If we cultivate this mindset, our lives will be transformed into a miraculous journey.

To whom else would God prove Himself if not to the children who cling to Him? Let us cling to Christ and receive miracles. Amen, Hallelujah! Prayer

Our good Father, who miraculously transforms our lives, we thank You for this wonderful day. Grant each of us the unshakable confidence that You are with us, even if others forsake us. Give us the grace to live by relying solely on Your mercy, rather than growing weary while waiting for visible miracles. Enable us to live our daily lives joyfully, trusting that You are with us every single minute. We thank You, O One who hears and answers our prayers. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, our good and living Father. Amen.

GOD'S PERFECT PUPPET

The best childhood memory during my vacations was the VBS program. I loved the songs, skits and everything but the most favourite of mine was Puppet show. I loved the way the VBS director would narrate a story or a Bible verse with a lifeless doll. The director would put his hand inside the doll and would move its mouth and make it look like te doll is speaking. The doll could not speak, see or hear but it was the VBS director who did everything.

I had a wish to become God's puppet. I asked, "God, can it be done?"

He answered in an unexpected way. Few days earlier, I was reading Exodus and the chapter was explaining the preparation of Tabernacle, altar, curtains, etc. God said to Moses, I have chosen Bezalel and Oholiab to make artistic designs (Exodus 31). The plan that was shown to Moses was explained to Bezalel, Oholiab and few more skilled person, they joined together and completed the work. Moses inspected the work and saw that they had done it just as the Lord had commanded. So, Moses blessed them. (Exodus 39: 43)

I read the verse saying, "the work of a skilled craftsman" (Exodus 39:8). I was wondering, why was these words mentioned for someone whom God gave the talents and used them for his purpose. The moment the question strike and I asked God, He was ready with his answers. "Though God gave the talents and called for the work, it is our duty to follow only God's command and neither add nor subtract anything." When Moses inspected, he did not find any flaws, nothing was added neither subtracted though God called them "skilled craftsman".

If we would be in that place, what would be our action? Will we use God's talent according to his command?

Many times, we fail to do so and simply we will show laziness and will stop continuing the work or else we would have the pride and add our own thoughts to the work that God didn't command.

With the work of Bezalel and Oholiab, God showed me the right examples of "Perfect Puppet".

So, Let's try to be God's Perfect Puppet.
